

THE LAZARUS AD CLAIM:	THE TRUTH:
(ANNOUNCER) A respected judge, a loyal Democrat, (SUPER) Picture of Cindy Lazarus in judges' robes	Lazarus has not been a judge since 2005. According to the Franklin County Board of Elections, Lazarus is not a registered Democrat. She did not vote for Ted Strickland in the 2006 Democratic primary.
(ANNOUNCER) Cindy Lazarus has been endorsed by the Columbus Dispatch which said, "A wealth of experience makes Lazarus the best choice." (SUPER) "Wealth of experience makes Lazarus best choice in Democratic primary."
(ANNOUNCER) Her grasp of public policy and law make her an outstanding candidate. (SUPER) An outstanding candidate.	As an Appeals Court judge, Lazarus used a template for virtually all of her court opinions. She sided with businesses over labor unions in over 70% of her cases.
(ANNOUNCER) She's earned the reputation of a skilled mediator and consensus builder. (SUPER) "skilled mediator and consensus builder."	Lazarus has only been endorsed or supported by one of her former colleagues.
(ANNOUNCER) And about her opponent, the Dispatch said his resume and performance do not stack up to Lazarus'. (SUPER) John O'Grady "resume and performance do not stack up to Lazarus'."	John O'Grady is the only candidate with proven county executive experience. Cindy Lazarus quit her elected terms to City Council and Court of Appeals early.
(ANNOUNCER) Cindy Lazarus knows how to get things done. She's the people's choice. Cindy Lazarus. Because it matters. (SUPER) Cindy Lazarus ...because it matters.	It is impossible for Cindy Lazarus to have the endorsement of "the people."